

Transgender Awareness Week 2018

Show up for trans folks, learn about our experiences, & be in community

November 13th-20th

www.outboulder.org/taw

Kate Bornstein is a "Queer & Pleasant Danger" film screening

7pm, Tuesday, 11/13 at
Dairy Arts Center
(2590 Walnut St, Boulder)

film made possible by:

Trans & Friends Social

trans folks, allies, & family welcome
6-8pm, Sunday, 11/18 at
Under the Sun
(627 S Broadway, Boulder)

Trans Trivia!

Youth-run game; all ages welcome
4:30-6:30pm, Monday, 11/19 at OBC
(630 Main St, Longmont)

Transgender Day of Remembrance to honor lives lost to anti-trans violence

6pm, Tuesday, 11/20
Old Courthouse on Pearl &
First United Methodist labyrinth

Sharing Transgender Stories

Q&A Panel with local trans folks
6:30pm, Wednesday, 11/14 at OBC
(630 Main St, Longmont)

TransGiving Dinner

food & community for trans folks
(nonbinary, gender expansive, trans etc)
4-7pm, Saturday, 11/17 at OBC
(630 Main St, Longmont)

Trans
Awareness
Week 2018

November 13th-20th
www.outboulder.org/taw

"The work begins by each of us recognizing that cis people are not more valuable or legitimate and that trans people who blend as cis are not more valuable or legitimate. We must recognize, discuss, and dismantle this hierarchy that polices bodies and values certain ones over others." - Janet Mock

