

BRITISH COLUMBIA REVIEW BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF PART XX.1 (Mental Disorder) OF THE CRIMINAL CODE
R.S.C. 1985 c.-46, as amended S.C. 2005 c. 22

IN THE MATTER OF JUSTIN JAMES JOHNSTON

DISPOSITION

On September 21, 2021 Justin James JOHNSTON (the accused) was found not criminally responsible on account of mental disorder by the Supreme Court of British Columbia at Prince George on one count of manslaughter contrary to section 236(b) of the Criminal Code and was ordered held in custody at the Forensic Psychiatric Hospital until disposition by the British Columbia Review Board (the Review Board);

AND on November 03, 2021 the Review Board held a hearing, via video, pursuant to section 672.47(1) of the Criminal Code and made a disposition;

THE REVIEW BOARD ORDERS AND DIRECTS that the accused be detained in custody and reside in the Forensic Psychiatric Hospital subject to the following conditions:

1. THAT he be subject to the direction and supervision of the Director, Adult Forensic Psychiatric Services (the Director);
2. THAT, at the Director's discretion, he may have escorted access to the community depending on his mental condition, having regard to the risk the accused then poses to himself or others;
3. THAT as required by the Director, he attend at any time and place for purposes of assessment, counselling, assisting him with regard to any treatment, promoting his reintegration into society, or monitoring his compliance with this order;
4. THAT he not consume alcohol or cannabis;
5. THAT he not use any drugs except as approved by the Director;
6. THAT at his discretion, the Director may monitor the accused's compliance with this order by testing using urinalysis for the use of alcohol, cannabis or unprescribed drugs and the accused shall submit to such testing upon the demand of the Director;
7. THAT he keep the peace and be of good behaviour; and
8. THAT he present himself before the Review Board when required.

THIS DISPOSITION TAKES EFFECT on November 03, 2021.
